Vote for your Federation reps

Vote for your Fed reps in South Wales Police from 1-21 March

Choose the people who represent your interests - vote for your local Federation representatives from 1-21 March. Our new process allows members to vote for their Workplace Reps, local Branch Chair, and the National Chair via an electronic voting system. Information on how to vote is being sent directly to all members via their PNN email addresses.

Why should members vote?

Your local Police Federation representatives support and advise you on matters such as conduct, pay, allowances, terms and conditions, equality, professional development and operational policing issues this is an opportunity for you to choose the people you want to represent you.

There is a wealth of expertise and much work being done by approximately 1,500 Fed reps across England and Wales, each and every day, locally and nationally, representing approximately 120,000 officers (97% of all rank and file). Find out how reps are working for members by visiting our national Reps@Work campaign page.

Federation Elections – News 1st March

Rank and file police officers across England and Wales began voting for their force's Police Federation Workplace Representatives today 01 March 2018

Workplace reps undertake their Federation duties alongside their role as a police officer, supporting and advising members on matters such as conduct, pay, allowances, terms and conditions, equality, professional development and operational policing issues.

Any Police Federation member, subscribing or non-subscribing, is eligible to vote for their local reps. For the first time, our election process is being administered electronically giving more members than ever the opportunity to have their say.

Information on how to vote and each member's personal Unique Voting Code (UVC) is currently being sent directly to their PNN email addresses, with distribution scheduled to complete by tomorrow morning. Using their UVC, members can log on and vote via www.mi-vote.com.

There are some Branches where the number of reps standing for election is below the allocation for that force, therefore voting is not required - these forces are Cambridgeshire, City of London, Durham, Essex, Lancashire, Norfolk, Northamptonshire, Suffolk and Surrey.

The closing date for voting in all forces (excluding the Met) is 11.59pm on Wednesday 21 March. Due to their size, the Metropolitan Branch have an additional election round, so voting began earlier (on 22 February) and will close on 14 March.
