Richard Scott, Partner and Head of Family Law, Cardiff, at Harrison Clark Rickerbys

For the South Wales Police Federation

Experienced solicitor and “pensions expert within divorce proceedings” Richard Scott has embarked on a new venture as a Partner and Head of Family Law in Cardiff after being head hunted by Top 100 National law firm, Harrison Clark Rickerbys (HCR) solicitors.

Richard has always had strong links with the Police Federation across the entire South Wales region and has advised and represented numerous Police Federation members over the past 10 years on all aspects of a relationship or marital breakdown to include:

- Divorce/Civil partnership dissolution
- Financial settlements
- Pre & Post Nuptial Agreements
- Cohabitee Disputes
- Children matters

Richard has a particular niche in advising police officers within a divorce and financial remedy context and has specialist knowledge of the complexities and eccentricities of the 1987 and 2015 police pension schemes

With Richard, Police Federation members will benefit from a free initial consultation at the point of contact and thereafter with hourly rates which are discounted by 20%; he is happy to meet via Zoom or Teams.
